Re: United States v. Robert Arellano, et al.,
Crim. No. 3:17-cr-51 (D.N.J.)

Dear Honorable Judge Thompson:

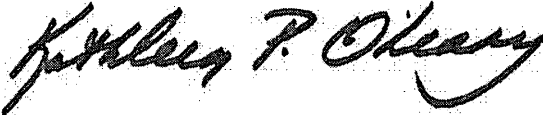

On March 10, 2017, the Court entered a scheduling order in the above-captioned matter, providing that any motions filed by defendant Robert Arellano would be due on June 23, 2017. Defendant Arellano filed a motion to suppress on June 23, 2017 (ECF No. 107). On June 14, 2017, a grand jury returned a superseding indictment in this matter, by which three defendants were added to the indictment: Dajwan Ware, Justin Love, and Robert A. Elliott, Sr. At the arraignment on the superseding indictment, the date of which has not yet been set by the Court, the parties will present a proposed scheduling order that includes motions deadlines for all defendants.

In order that all defense motions can be briefed and heard on the same schedule, to afford defendants the opportunity to file joinders in one another's motions, and to promote judicial and party economy, the government requests by this letter that the scheduling order entered March 10, 2017, be vacated. The government further requests that all defense motions and government responses, including the government's response to defendant Arellano's pending motion to suppress, be due and heard on a single schedule as provided in the scheduling order to be entered by this Court at the arraignment on the superseding indictment.

Very truly yours,

WILLIAM E. FITZPATRICK
Acting United States Attorney
